

4-H Horse Project Code of Conduct

As members of the 4-H horse project, we believe...

In Jobs-

- Safety of Horses
- Safety of Others
- Safety of Yourself
- Clean Aisle
- Food and Water for Horse

These Rights come with Responsibilities-

- The right to show, but the responsibility to be on time
- The right to ride, but the responsibility to execute courteous ring etiquette
- The right to wear what you want, but the responsibility to dress appropriately when in the arena and displaying your horse
- The right to use the barn, but the responsibility to keep it safe

Groups Rights Balance with Individual's Rights-

- Riders and Lungers
- Waiting Riders and Entering Riders
- Rule Followers and Rule Breakers

Goals: Education, Be Safe, HAVE FUN!
